INTRODUCTION

Wakanda Inu is a community meme project forged from the deep and warm consciousness of humanity.

Wakanda Inu (WKD), the digital meme token that represents the daily struggles and aspirations of the best aspects of what it means to be alive - truly alive as a community.

Basking in the glory of the Ubuntu spirit, we present to you Wakanda Inu, the African dog, forged and baptized by the spirit of One Community.

WKD is a decentralized meme token to drive growth in the industry, decentralized finance-oriented activities across the world.

Wakanda Inu, the African dog with its high energy, great stamina, incredible hearing, super vision and dominance; it captures the essence of exactly what it means to be successful -the true predator.

Be a pioneer on this mission. Wakanda Inu will outperform every meme coin out there. We are well on our way to inevitable widespread adoption.

Wakanda forever 🙅🙅🙅

VALUES

Transparency

To show our first commitment, there will be no private sale or special allocation to the team members during the public sale. All team members will go through the whitelisting process just like every other member of the community. 80% generated from the public sale will go for liquidity and locked, while the remaining 20% is for operation to ensure a successfully moon mission.

Charity

Wakanda Inu is a decentralized meme token to drive charity-oriented activities across the globe. 4% of the allocable tokens will be used for charity cause.

Unity

$WKD is a cryptocurrency token from the motherland built to foster togetherness, facilitate social upliftment, and further the rise of the meme-powered metaverse.

Community

Wakanda Inu is a decentralised community driven project. As such, the wish of the community will be carried out through a well organised community voting.
